

PRESS RELEASE

15 February 2010 Sydney, Australia

ICSGgroup is pleased to announce Hi-Tek Projects has been successful in its tender with Built Australia, in conjunction with Woods Bagot for the joinery provision at the Qantas Perth Chairman's Lounge.

Hi Tek Projects has a long association for the quality delivery of high end projects with Built, Woods Bagot and Qantas.

Chairman's Lounge

Featuring increased space and comfort, the lounge will host improved facilities such as private work suites and a fully equipped meeting room. The new lounge is expected to open mid - April 2010.

"We really enjoy working with organisations that appreciate the extra effort in the delivery of intricate and extraordinary detail", said Steve Allison. "Being able to secure iconic projects allows us the ability to deliver projects of genuine quality and of substantial size and magnitude. The Hi Tek previous owner, Luigi Pinna is managing the installation and with him brings substantial experience".

"Luigi is an accredited professional when it comes to delivering complex projects and his continued association with Hi-Tek is considered invaluable", said Marcell Pavlovec, ICSGgroup Managing Principal.
