

PRESS RELEASE

dated 15 June 2010 Sydney, Australia

ICSGgroup is pleased to announce Hi-Tek Projects has been successful in its tender with Construction Control, in conjunction with Woods Bagot for the provision of fine joinery at the Qantas Canberra Chairman's Lounge.

Hi-Tek Projects has a long association with Woods Bagot and Qantas, in recognition of Hi-Tek Project's consistent delivery of quality, high end projects for its clients.

Chairman's Lounge

The Canberra Airport MUT Project is a redevelopment of the Terminal Precinct at Canberra Airport. The works include a new 50,000m² Terminal, two 38,000m² Car parks with office accommodation on the top levels, a central Elevated Road and a new Apron to service the aircraft. All of these works are being carried out in and around the existing Terminal, Car Parks and Aprons. The Chairman's Lounge will feature as a showcase at the Qantas Terminal. Featuring increased space and comfort, the lounge will host improved facilities such as private work suites and a fully equipped meeting room. The new lounge is expected to open mid - April 2010.

“Having a strong history and association with our client Qantas, we look forward to the delivery of a premium solution at the Level 3 Chairman’s Lounge with the quality installations that Hi-Tek is synonymous for” said Marcell Pavlovec, ICSG Group Managing Principal.
